1 Blea Rigg from Langdale

Distance: 14.2km (8.8 miles)
Time: 6 hours
Height gain: 720m

A ridge top walk involving a pleasant approach along Langdale and a steep climb to Stickle Tarn. The crags around Stickle Tarn are particularly impressive and the views from Blea Rigg are wide ranging. (clockwise)

2 Loughrigg Fell

Distance: 8.3km (5.2 miles)
Time: 3 hours
Height gain: 430m

A brisk traverse across the summit of Loughrigg Fell. This independent little mountain is the perfect introduction to the Lake District fells, giving a stunning summit experience after a short and interesting walk. (anti-clockwise)

3 Little Langdale, Tilberthwaite and Tarn Hows from Langdale

Distance: 18.8km (11.7 miles)
Time: 6 hours
Height gain: 670m

A low level inter valley walk, making use of old packhorse tracks, and quiet lanes to explore the succession of woods, rivers and tarns of Little Langdale, Tilberthwaite and Tarn Hows from Langdale. (anti-clockwise)

3 Tour of Lingmoor Fell

Distance: 14.7km (9.1 miles)
Time: 5 hours
Height gain: 500m

A circumnavigation of Lingmoor Fell taking in the mountain drama of Langdale and the contrasting pastoral intimacy of Little Langdale. There is one major climb but the rest of the walk is along well graded valley paths. (clockwise)
